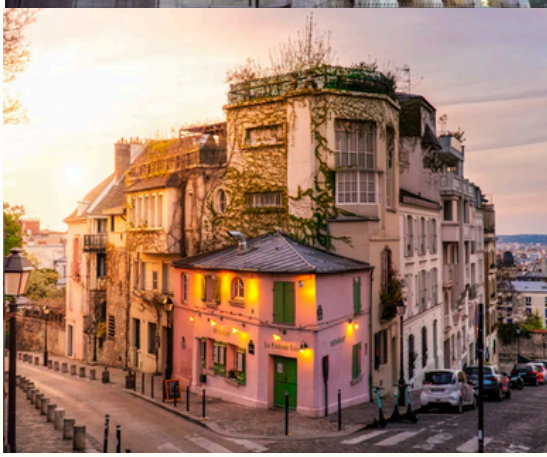
DAY 3 / MONTMARTRE & LOCAL FAVORITES

Explore the artistic charm of Montmartre, enjoy panoramic views over the city, and experience the neighborhood's café culture.



9:00 AM · BREAKFAST

Coffee and pastries at Café Marlette - Begin your morning with a cappuccino and freshly baked pastry at this inviting café on Rue des Abbesses. Enjoy the neighborhood atmosphere before exploring Montmartre's picturesque streets.

10:30 AM · SIGHTSEEING

Sacré-Cœur Basilica & Place du Tertre - Wander uphill to the magnificent Sacré-Cœur Basilica and admire panoramic views of Paris. Continue to Place du Tertre, where artists paint portraits and display their work in the lively square.

12:30 PM · LUNCH

A leisurely lunch at Le Coq & Fils - Settle into this refined bistro on Rue Lepic, celebrated for its French poultry dishes and rotisserie specialties. It's a lovely choice for a relaxed, memorable lunch.

2:30 PM · EXPLORE

Rue de l'Abreuvoir, La Maison Rose & Village Streets - Discover one of Montmartre's most photogenic streets, stopping to admire the pink façade of La Maison Rose. Continue along Rue des Saules, then explore the charming residential lanes of Avenue Junot and Villa Léandre.

7:30 PM · DINNER

An intimate dinner at L'Annexe Montmartre - End your day at this cozy French bistro on Rue des Trois Frères, known for creative seasonal cooking and an intimate atmosphere. A beautiful way to finish your Montmartre experience.

Freely Abroad Tip

Montmartre is best explored on foot, so wear comfortable shoes for its cobblestone streets and hills. Leave a little extra time for photographs and spontaneous café stops. Confirm restaurant hours and reserve ahead where appropriate.
